

CHC43015: Certificate IV in Ageing Support Information Sheet

Target Group

This qualification is directed mainly to those individuals who are already working in aged care in various organisational and industry environments. The participant may also have other existing qualifications and technical skills in a specific vocation or profession.

Entry Requirements

To gain entry into CHC43015 Certificate IV Ageing Support, a participant must have the relevant literacy and numeracy skills and we recommend that participants have good written and oral communication skills. The qualification will provide you with the skills to work with clients who are in community based or residential environments.

Qualification Description

This qualification reflects the role of support workers who complete specialised tasks and functions in aged services; either in residential, home or community based environments. Workers will take responsibility for their own outputs within defined organisation guidelines and maintain quality service delivery through the development, facilitation and review of individualised service planning and delivery.

Workers may be required to demonstrate leadership and have limited responsibility for the organisation and the quantity and quality of outputs of others within limited parameters.

To achieve this qualification, the candidate must have completed at least 120 hours of work as detailed in the Assessment Requirements of the units of competency.

Volume of Training and Mode of Delivery

This qualification is delivered face to face in a formal classroom setting. The mode of delivery has been adopted after consultation with industry. The volume of training for this qualification has been determined after having regard to the requirements and complexity of the qualification, the likely profile of the typical participants and the mode of delivery. Having regard to these factors, the volume of training is considered sufficient to enable a participant to satisfy the requirements of the qualification and gain the specified requisite skills and knowledge. The classroom component of the training qualification is delivered over a 7-to-12-month period of 6 hours per day, one day per week. It is also expected you will undertake approximately 11 hours per week of self-directed learning, depending on the complexity of the specific unit of competence.

In addition to the face-to-face training, all participants will be instructed and assessed on practical tasks in a work place environment.

A range of teaching and learning strategies will be used to deliver the competencies. These include:

- practical tasks;
- group work;
- activities in simulated work environments; and
- activities in a work environment.

Participants are also able to communicate with their trainer via email/telephone. Training Beyond 2000 Pty Ltd will ensure participants have every reasonable opportunity to complete their training qualification.

Course Cost

You may be eligible for government subsidised training under NSW Government or Commonwealth Government programs providing you meet specific eligibility criteria. More information is available in our Participant Information Handbook, which can be found on our website.

Participants who are not eligible to receive subsidised funding for this qualification will be able to enrol in this qualification for a total cost of $2,300. A deposit of $300 is required to secure your place in the class. Participants need to contact the Director to work out a payment instalment plan.
